First Lieut. CHAS. W. DREW, 13th Aero Squadron.—For extraordinary heroism in action near Filrey. France, Aug. 15, 1918. Lieut. Drew operated one of a patrol of four machines which attacked four enemy hattle planes. In the fight which followed he attacked in succession three of the enemy airships, driving one of them out of the battle. He then eigaged another machine at close ing one of them out of the battle. He then engaged another machine at close range and received ten builets in his own plane, one of which penetrated his radiator, while another pierced his helmet. In spite of this Lieut. Drew followed the German plane to a low altitude within the enemy's lines and shot it down in flames. During the latter part of the combat he courageously regues to abandon the fight aithough he had become separated from his companions and his engine had become so hot, because of the leak in his radiator, that there was imminent danger of its falling him at any moment. ## LAUGHLIN TO HAND BACK TAX LANDS

Will Restore Properties to Original Owners for What Purchases Cost Him.

CAPT. DOUGLAS WOUNDED ADMITS LAWS' DEFECTS

Mayor's Committee Had Re ceived Three Complaints Against Patchogue Man.

Laurence Laughlin of Patchogue, L. t. told the Mayor's Committee on Taxation yesterday that he would return to ong. inal owners forty parcels of land he had bought at Suffolk county tax sales. He

According to Samuel S. Breslin, the committee's counsel, it was rather hard to get Laughlin to visit the committee's office in the Municipal Building, but when he did go he admitted that tax sales under the present laws inflict grave injustice on small property owners and said that as far as he was concerned he would not be a party to this wrong. The committee had received complaints against Laughlin. Callahan of 31 Tompkins street ton, S. L. said that Laughlin demanded $200 for two and a haif acres at Broo Haven, L. I., which he had bought at a tax sale for $1.08, the amount of one year's tax, which Callahan had neglected

According to Michael Meeres of 201 According to animal according to Mindsor place, Brooklyn, Laughlin replied, 'It is not for sale,' when Meerestried to get back a lot in Patchague which Meeres had lost without knowing it, he having continued to pay the taxes.

The third complainant, Harry Call of 510 West Forty-second street, asserted that he had bought four and a half acres at Brook Haven, L. I. and discov-ered last year that it had been sold for $9 unpaid tax to Laughlin. Laughlin yanted tax to languin. Jauguin wanted $10,000 for a quit claim deed. Call said.

Yesterday Laughlin denied that he had named any such price as Call and Meeres alleged. He explained that he had bought at tax sales in order to ge good property cheap.

Laughlin Thanks Lawyer. When Breslin told him of the facts developed by the tax sale investigation— how the poor were losing their hard bought land, in many cases without knowing why they lost it—Laughlin thanked the lawyer for presenting the matter in a new light and voluntarily offered to return at cost all the property he had bought.
